Dear Mr Zargar,

My journey to India on behalf of the University of Oxford Alumni Travellers programme was arranged flawlessly by Indus Discoveries. Your team's expertise and attention to detail are unsurpassed.

I will not hesitate to recommend Indus Discoveries' travel services. Not only are your itineraries creative and thought-provoking, but your team is very easy to work with and always available to answer questions and discuss plans.

It is clear to me that your team has been working in the travel industry in India for decades. Their experience and knowledge are reflected in their delivery of creative journeys designed for curious alumni travellers.

Sincerely,

Denise Gogarty
